CLOISONNÉ TILES

CLOISSONNÉ TILES

LALA CURIO voyages back to Imperial China, delving into the ancient forgotten arts and returning with the creation of Cloisonné Tiles. The Cloisonné Tile Collection boasts succulent colors and fanciful patterns. The art of Cloisonné, once restricted to Imperial use, is uniquely adapted to the form of tiles, bringing a touch of stateliness to the contemporary home.

Craftsmen weave metal wires into intricate patterns, where upon pigmented enamel is then poured into the partitions. The enamel is fired and burnished in 24 karat gold. From the kiln emerges the kaleidoscopic square, an expression of child's play born through a master's craft.

Our Collection is available in one and a half, three and six-inch tiles. The modular pieces can be flexibly arranged to adorn interior spaces, furnishings and decorative objects.

LALA CURIO Cloisonné Tiles revive ancient craft for contemporary living.

The image is a collage. On the right side, there is a solid red background with the text 'THE REDA AMALOU COLLECTION' in white, uppercase, sans-serif font. On the left side, there is a black and white striped pattern consisting of horizontal bars of varying lengths. Overlaid on this pattern is a photograph of three animals: a white duck in the top left corner, a colorful bird (possibly a parrot) in the center, and a turtle in the bottom left corner. The overall composition is modern and artistic.
